

Michael Eichten

Singer Songwriter Storyteller

Genres: Country, Rock, Acoustic, Folk, and Blues

Influences: Johnny Cash, Kris Kristofferson, Waylon Jennings, Hank Williams, Don Williams, Jim Croce, Bob Dylan, John Prine, Merle Haggard, Brandi Carlile

EP: Here For You (September 2019)

Singles: "Veteran Tribute," "Omaha Orange," "76," "Soul Shiner," "How Beer Saved The World," "Well Worn Trails," "Miss Norma," "Here For You"

A handwritten signature of Michael Eichten in black ink, written in a cursive style.

BIOGRAPHY

Michael is a passionate singer-songwriter and storyteller whose music is a tapestry of heartfelt lyrics, soulful melodies, and captivating narratives. Drawing inspiration from life's myriad experiences, Michael crafts songs that resonate deeply with audiences, touching on themes of love, loss, and the human journey.

With a unique ability to weave stories into his songs, Michael takes listeners on an emotional journey, blending personal anecdotes with universal truths. His performances are more than just concerts—they are intimate storytelling sessions where every song unfolds a new chapter of his life.

WHAT SETS MICHAEL APART

Michael's ability to connect with his audience through genuine storytelling and heartfelt music sets him apart in the music industry. His songs are not just tunes but narratives that invite listeners to explore their own emotions and experiences.

LIVE PERFORMANCES

Michael has performed at numerous venues, ranging from intimate coffee shops to larger music festivals. His engaging stage presence and powerful storytelling have earned him a loyal following and critical acclaim. Notable performances include:

- Everygy Plaza Live at Lunch, 2024
- The Second Fiddle, 2023
- AARP Kansas Friday Night Concert, 2023
- NOTO Summer Concert Series, 2022

CONNECT

- Email: info@michaeleichten.com
- Website: michaeleichten.com
- YouTube: michaeleichten.com/youtube
- Facebook: michaeleichten.com/facebook